feeting with and new life in the use of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This great medicine is far more than a tonic. It cures diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition, and enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of food of which alone all physical strength is made.

"The reason I delayed writing was because I wasted to wait one year after I had taken the medicine before giving my statement, and new I can seed a good, conscientious testimoshed "writes Mr. Chas. If. Bergeaut, of Plain Cky, Midison Ca., Ohio. "During the summer and fall of 186 I because all 'run-down,' neves were out of order and stomach out of order. I wrote to Br. Recce for advice. He said I had general debility, and advised Br. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and, thanks to you for your advice, I used six bottles; and since I stopped taking it about one year ago. I have not taken any medicine of any kind, and have ton able to work rerry day. My appetite is good, I can eat three square meals a day, and I do not feet that miserable burning in the stomach after eating. My blood and nerves are in good shape, and well—in the I, I think I am in pretty good running order."

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children white teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, curos wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhees. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in covery part of the world. Twenty-fire cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Time he did not think they had the tionally violated the order and he would therefore not deal with them harshly, but would make their fine light. At the same time, however, he wished to say that the trial and the publicity given this matter served to put everybody on notice of the meaning of these injunction orders, and if there should be any further violations he would visit severe punishment upon the offenders. Charleston, W. Va., yesterday Judge to be dying. Keller held John Richards and his associates guilty of contempt and fined them $5 and costs each, holding them committed until the fines were paid or bail given. Richards is president of District 17, United Mine Workers.

Judge Keller first decided the question of juvisdiction, holding that having the control of the co of jurisdiction, holding that having jurisdiction of the non-resident parties against whom the bill was fied gave the court jurisdiction over anybody who was confederated with them. It was the court jurisdiction over anybody who was confederated with them, no matter where such persons resided. The testimony, he said, clearly proved a confederation between the defendants named in this case. On the question of what it took to constitute a violation of the injunction order, he held that it did not recogire entry months. FRIGHTENED INTO CONFESSION, -Mrs. Ignatz Wiurchowski has made a written confession to the Cleveland, Ohio, police that the man who shot and killed her husband Sunday night was Charles Janaski, a former boarder at the Wiurchowiski home, who is alleged to be infatuated with Mrs. Wiurchowski. Mrs. Wiurchowski and her husband were on their way home late Sunday night when a man rushed from the bushes and killed Winrchowski instantly, Mrs. Winr-chowski told the police that it was a robber that committed the crime. Since the commission of the murder Mrs. Winrehowski and Janaski have been under arrest. Tues lay night two detectives went through the crime in mimic as nearly as possible from Mrs. Wiurchowski's description. One detective acted as escort for the woman while the other rushed at them from the bushes. When the revolver was pointed at the detective's head, the woman went into hysterics and cried out: "My God, its Charles Janaski." The confession was verified later, and written out. At noon Charles Janaski, the man accused by Mrs. Wiurchowski with the murder of her husband, confessed to having committed the crime, and implicated committed the crime, and implicated had gone so far as to decide what to do with Wiurchowski's life insurance. The charge of murder has been placed against Janaski and Mrs. Wiurchowski.
